

the Re-Theatre
Instrument

1887 SW 14th Ave.
Portland, OR 97201

www.retheatre.org

(503) 922.2453

omnibus@retheatre.org

THE RE-THEATRE INSTRUMENT PRESENTS:

Much Ado About Nothing – the Repertory Show: One Cast, Two Shows

CONTACT: Jason Zimble * jason@re-theatre.org * 503 922 2453

DIRECTORS: Jason Zimble (adaptation), Ernie Johns (classic)

WRITERS: Jason Zimble and the Cast (adaptation), William Shakespeare (classic)

CAST: Jamie M. Rea, Luke Norby, Kyle Lange, Jeff Gorham, Stephanie Blair, Nick Ferrucci, Tony Green, Tom Mounsey, Jon Lee, Melissa Whitney

SHOW DATES: May 8th – June 6th.
Thursdays through Saturday @ 7:30 pm, Sundays @ 2:00
(No Performance Sunday, May 10th)
Classic/Adaptation in Rep 4:00 pm and 8:00 pm May 30st and June 6th
Final Performance Saturday June 6th

PRICES: $20 for Adults, $15 for students and seniors.
Save your ticket stub and see the second show for $10.

LOCATION: Brunish Hall, Portland Center for the Performing Arts
1111 SW Broadway, Portland, OR

BOX OFFICE: Online at www.retheatre.org or www.ticketmaster.com
By telephone at 503.790.ARTS or 503.922.2453
At the PCPA box office at 1111 SW Broadway

ABOUT THE SHOW: The Re-Theatre Instrument continues to push out the envelope with its ambitious presentation of a dazzling, re-imagining of Much Ado About Nothing in a contemporary bridal salon running in repertory with William Shakespeare's comedic classic. Love, wit, and folly abound in these two pieces which, in tandem, make for one extraordinary theatrical experience!

ABOUT THE COMPANY: The Re-Theatre Instrument, founded in the autumn of 2007 is a company dedicated to creating new work built around adaptations of classic texts. Our goal is to reconnect our audiences to these timeless stories by illuminating in them current social, moral, ethical, and political issues. We employ a unique collaborative process which harnesses the creativity of our actors, designers, and technicians to create incisive new texts and dramatic, fresh productions. More information on our company can be found on our website, <http://www.retheatre.org>

